Land Auction Proof of Strong Land Values

On Thursday, March 5th, Clift Land Auctions held a successful land auction in Raton, NM. Offered for sale was 3,920 acres of NE New Mexico ranchland. "We offered this land in two individual tracts and ended with two buyers," commented George Clift, owner of Clift Land Auctions and Clift Land Brokers in Amarillo, Texas. The final results totaled to just over $2M, representing a new high for land values in that area.

To kick off the bidding, the auctioneer solicited a donation to the all volunteer Des Moines EMS in Des Moines, NM. The highest bidder, Jordan Ward, Vice President of the Farmers & Stockmen's Bank of Clayton, NM donated $500.00, on behalf of the bank, to help support this organization. Clift Land Auctions will match their donation with another $500.00.

"This land auction offers proof that land values in our area remain strong and that a land auction is a sound business decision for ranchers", added Mr. Clift. Clift Land Auctions has been in the land auction business for over 12 years, and we have sold over 190,000 acres of farms and ranches during that time.
